Joe took off the 84th day of the school year, as did all the seniors who will graduate this year (1984). What an unusual "tradition." at 9:30 AM, Joe rang my back door bell, having decided to spend his day off here at 814-L. Joe had in his hand a Roemmelmeyer's bag which contained new gym clothes which he had bought & a mat: Penn State football trunks and a Penn State top. He put the trunks on and wore them most of the day. How interesting that Joe should have a PSA "thing", as do many area kids, even though they are not interested in going to college. Jean & her cleaning lady, Lila, arrived shortly after John's arrival. We cleaned. John repaired the cord on the vacuum cleaner that stays downstairs. I put on "42nd Street" and then "Barnum" and the spirits of the household were raised accordingly. at noon we had tea and chicken noodle soup. Joe and I had the ramen soup and ate the soup with chop sticks, to the infinite amusement of Jean & Lila. John read in the front parlor as Jean & Lila & I cleaned - - why were we cleaning? For the visit of Mr & Mrs. Michael Delfino & Mr. & Mrs. Frank Mancuso & son. Jean & Lila left about 1 PM; heavy snow was falling. I telephoned Steve to make sure that the meeting at Lake Wallenpaupack was still on. No, it was rescheduled because of the snow storm. That pleased me because it appeared that there was going to be a scheduling conflict - - the dumpster was to arrive at City Hall at 4:30 PM; Joe & I had to leave for Lake Wallenpaupack by 6 PM at the latest. Joe went home at 2:30 or so & I went down town - - stopped at the News and picked up this week's paper; made a deposit at the Liberty Bank. Went to City Hall and ran into Charlotte & Joe and told Charlotte about the meeting with Quinn on the 24th at 9:30 AM in the Mayor's office. She was pleased and that pleased me. From 4-5 PM I waited for the dumpster from Altier to arrive so that we could get rid of the garbage on the 3rd floor. No show. Joe, Paul, Jim, Ed and I worked on the windows and also on scraping the paint from the woodwork in 302. At 8 PM I left and came here to receive the Delfinos and Mancusos. They all came over with Jean & Ken at 8:30 PM and Jean and Ken "gave the tour." I told Joe that I would return to CCH & but couldn't get away. It was after 11 when "the tour" left and I regrouped and that was that. I got very upset when schedules become too tight and one can not devote the appropriate time to several activities. Very frustrating. I was very out of sorts when I withdrew for the evening.
